

RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF SIGNATORIES TO TE TIRITI O WAITANGI

Articles	Hapū ↓ Māori	Crown → NZ Government ↓ Tangata Tiriti
Article One: kawanatanga	Responsibility: To respect the right of the government to govern	Right: to govern
Article Two: tino rangatiratanga land sales	Right: to retain control of all they value Right: all land sales voluntary Responsibility: for land sales to be managed by the government	Responsibility: To ensure hapu retain control of all they value Responsibility: Ensure land sales are voluntary Right: to manage land sales
Article Three: Maori rights	Right: have same rights and protections as British people	Responsibility: ensure Maori have the same rights and protections as British people
Article Four: protection of Maori customs	Right: to have customs protected	Responsibility: to ensure Maori customs protected

Note: The Articles of the Treaty specifically state rights conferred on each party (see bold). The (implied) corresponding responsibilities for both parties have been added.